NOTICE to the MEMBERS

The RBC Learn to Play Project will provide grants to local organizations and communities in support of building the physical literacy of Canada's kids and youth.

RBC Learn to Play Community Action Grants and RBC Learn to Skate Program ($1,000 to $10,000) will be awarded to local organizations that teach new skills or sports to kids, and/or expose them to a multiple sports or multiple skills such as swimming or skating lessons. Programs eligible for funding include those that:

- a. Provide instruction/learning of a new skill or sport that the child/youth would otherwise not have an opportunity to experience; and/or
- b. Emphasize and expose children/youth to a multi-sport or multi-skill participation experience; and/or
- c. Implement a new approach/delivery to sport and physical activity through the creation of programs recommended by Canadian Sport For Life.

Non for Profit groups are eligible to apply for grants under Community Grants.

The ideal ages for the projects are 6-12 year olds,
The projects should run between September 2016 and September 2017.
The program provides up to 50% of the cost of the program.
Grants over $5000 require audited financial statements upon application.
